CAPE TOWN PRESS CLUB/BRITISH AMERICAN TOBACCO BURSARY (FOR SENIOR GRADUATE CANDIDATES)

The Cape Town Press Club and BATSA offer a bursary to a post graduate student whose studies have been broadly relevant to the field of journalism.

- The bursaries - valued at R20 000 - will be offered to a student who has graduated successfully in their chosen course. The amount will suffice for one year.
- The Cape Town Press Club is committed to building the skills base and strength of the media industry, both through its programme and by supporting those who work in journalism and the media.
- The Cape Town Press Club, without prejudice, will award the Senior Graduate bursary to a student either at University of Cape Town, Rhodes University or Stellenbosch University – for a journalism honours or masters programme.
- The Scholarship award will be deposited into the fee account of successful applicant.
- An initial amount of R10 000 will be granted to the successful candidate on registration of the student for an honours or masters programme and upon receipt of a mid-year progress report showing suitable progress, the second tranche of R10 000 will be granted. Should it be a thesis based honours' or masters' degree, a written report from the student's tutor would suffice indicating student was on target to complete the degree in the appropriate time.
- On completion of studies a full report card should be sent to the Cape Town Press Club.
- Completed application forms and referee's reports must be received by the closing date.
- Closing date for applications is the last Friday of September.
- Late or incomplete applications will not be processed
- Successful applicants will be informed of the outcome within 6 weeks of closing date for applications.
- Successful applicants automatically consent to the publication of their name on the Club's website or in any other use or manner that publicises the work of the Cape Town Press Club.
- Successful applicants may be required to deliver a short address at a Cape Town Press Club function.
